

Technology Services

---

- Request authorization to enter into a five (5) year contract with AT&T to provide Alameda Unified School District's network infrastructure.

Bids Process

---

- Bids
  - AT&T
  - Sunesys

- Calls for information / no bids
  - Two radio network providers

- AP&T
  - Flat Rate

-
- AT&T will provide a fully meshed, redundant network for all students and staff.
  - Each school site will be connected to the network by a 100 megabit connection.
  - The District Office will be connected by a one gigabit connection.

RFP # MAN-2009

---

Replace the District's network and backbone infrastructure.

Backbone equipment

Turn-key operation

$461,652 per year pre discount level

$115,413 per year post discounts

$ 57,506 for the first six months (Jan 2010 to June 2010)

General Fund

Additional one time costs of $25,000 to $50,000

FF&E monies

AP&T did not bid. Any costs will be fully borne by the District

Benefits to Students and Staff

---

- Faster research and access to information
- Increased bandwidth for streaming video and virtual explorations
- Reliable connectivity for communications
  - Web site and SchoolLoop
- Faster service and support by AT&T
  - 99.95% with 2 hr response
- Industry standard equipment and technology
  - Cisco backbone
- Tiered growth as needed

-
- Request authorization to enter into a five (5) year contract with AT&T to provide Alameda Unified School District's network infrastructure.

Per all applicable State and Federal requirements in accordance with the Federal E-Rate Program